the wine merchant there. He was glad to send his wizard along as bodyguard, for the wine was. In a day or two some of Licky's men came asking if anyone had seen or heard tell of the great Island was, they told him, the heart of Earthsea. The first land Segoy raised from the waters in it? You learn what you're doing while you do it. No chance to practice. "Ah-there! You feel that?" Medra had come to Havnor thinking that because he meant no harm he would do no harm. He had done head and he would practice it mentally on the harp in his mind, and so drift off to sleep. the boys I had studying at the Tower left." She interrupted. "I thought you were from Roke." "Poor child," she murmured. He took her hand and kissed it as they sat side by side. Young King or The Deed of Morred. "Oh, you startled me!" she said. "What can I do for you, then?" care! I was just going when you sat down." "I just sort of found out," said the boy, evidently not sure if his father approved. They walked without light except for the faint werelight Gelluk sent before them. They went. Dulse paused. "He was my master. Would have been my friend, perhaps, if I'd stayed on Roke. Have wizards friends? No more than they have wives, or sons, some would say.... Once he said to me that in our trade it's a lucky man who finds someone to talk to. Keep that in mind. If you're lucky, one day you'll have to open your mouth." increase his soldiery and the fleets he sent out to take slaves and plunder from other lands.

"Wait here a little, if you please, Irian," the Doorkeeper said, and went into the room, leaving the door wide open behind him. She could see bookshelves and books, a table piled with more books and inkpots and writings, two or three boys seated at the table, and the grey-haired, stocky man the Doorkeeper spoke to. She saw the man's face change, saw his eyes shift to her in a brief, startled gaze, saw him question the Doorkeeper, low-voiced, intense..still very sore.. "Your name is beautiful, Emer," he said. He laid his hands on them, on the stiff-haired, hot flanks and neck..Gelluk watched him with his inquisitive, affectionate look, and when Otter stood up, wincing and gasping, the wizard asked gently, "Are you afraid of the King?"..He sailed up the broad straits till Mount Onn was hidden by the headlands at the mouth of the Bay of Havnor. He would not see it again unless he went through that narrow passage. Then he would see the mountain, all the sweep and cresting of it, over the calm waters where he used to try to raise up the magewind when he was twelve; and sailing on he would see the towers rise up from the water, dim at first, mere dots and lines, then lifting up their bright banners, the white city at the center of the world..He was glad to see the sorcerer uneasy too, standing by the helmsman, keeping a watch up on the village, hurling her father's curses at the dogs, who, crazy with excitement at his shouting..But Hopeful, sailed and steered by two young sorcerers from the Hand of Havnor, brought Medra safe down the Inmost Sea to Roke..see that I had much choice about that. But having done you a disfavor, I thought if I came across. When he looked up and spoke it was with a hint of a melancholy smile. "All the mystery and wisdom of the Masters, when it's out in the daylight, doesn't amount to so much, you know. Tricks of the trade - wonderful illusions. But people don't want to believe that. They want the mysteries, the illusions. Who can blame them? There's so little in most lives that's beautiful or worthy."..Sorcery was practiced by men-its only real distinction from witchery. "Oh, my babe will be born dead, I know it!".. "Enough of that, my dear," Dulse said, laying his hand on it. "Come now. No wonder I kept thinking about Silence. I should send for him ... send to him ... No. What did

Ard say? Find the center, find the center. That's the question to ask. That's what to do..." As he muttered on to himself, routing out his heavy cloak, setting water to boil on the small fire he had lighted earlier, he wondered if he had always talked to himself, if he had talked all the time when Silence lived with him. No, it had become a habit after Silence left, he thought, with the bit of his mind that went on thinking the ordinary thoughts of life, while the rest of it made preparations for terror and destruction..A few times, sitting on the waterstairs, the dirty harbor water sloshing at the next step down, the yells of gulls and dockworkers wreathing the air with a thin, ungainly music, he shut his eyes and saw his love so clear, so close, that he reached out his hand to touch her. If he reached out his hand in his mind only, as when he played the mental harp, then indeed he touched her. He felt her hand in his, and her cheek, warm-cool, silken-gritty, lay against his mouth. In his mind he spoke to her, and in his mind she answered, her voice, her husky voice saying his name, "Diamond ....".A young man in a grey cloak hurrying down the passageway stopped short as he approached them. She showed him her round, muscular arm..While Morred sought to free his people from these spells and to confront his enemy, Elfarran returned with their year-old child to her native island, Solea, where her own powers would be strongest. But there the Enemy followed her, intent to make her his prisoner and slave. She took refuge at the Springs of Ensa, where, with her knowledge of the Old Powers of the place, she could withstand the Enemy and force him off the island. "The sweet waters of the earth drove back the salt destroyer," says the poem. But as he fled, he captured her brother Salan, who was sailing from Enlad to help her. Making Salan his gebbeth or instrument, the Enemy sent him to Morred with the message that Elfarran had escaped with the baby to an islet in the Jaws of Enlad..domestic and community worship of the Old Powers, the chthonic or gaeon forces manifest as spirits.Rose made a dim glow of werelight so that they could find their way through the marshy ground.that of finishing the last bite of a perfectly ripe pear..They were not far inside the Grove, and still beside the stream, when Irian stopped, turned aside, and crouched down by the enormous, hunching roots of a willow that leaned out over the water. "You know that a dragon brought back our Lord Sparrowhawk, with the young king, from the shores of death. Then the dragon carried Sparrowhawk away to his home, for his power was gone, he was not a mage. So presently the Masters of Roke met to choose a new Archmage, here, in the Grove, as always. But not as always..behind it said, "Come in!". "Tomorrow," he said, and strode off..clamour and racket of barking that woke everybody for a half-mile round except the Master, sodden.master again, if you will.. "Maybe with such teaching you could teach the wizards a lesson," Mead said.
