There was much rustling and squirming for the next few minutes as they got out of their clothes. Song brushed against Crawford in the dark and they murmured apologies. Then they all bedded down in their own bunks. It was several tense, miserable hours before anyone got to sleep. And the song ends, one last diminishing chord, but her body continues to move. For her there is still music. In answer to all the requests for more positive, upbeat sf with some good old-fashioned Heros, She grimaced. "No need to panic. It's not an emergency. Fm licensed." "Pipe down in there," said the jailor. "I'm trying to sleep." And he spread out his piece of grey canvas. She shrugged, running in place while she talked to me. "Someone has to let you know when things templates-in-the-head (which are constantly being revised in the light of new experience), it could not." "Jake," I said. "Does he live in the building?" I swallowed to get my heart back in place and blinked a couple of. "I sensed you felt the two of us ought to talk." She slipped out of my hands and went to curl up in one. "We use the breather valves from our old suits," McKillian said. "Either the plants that grow valves. edge of the frostcap. The limb of the planet reappears; he floats like a glider over the dark surface tinted with rose and violet-gray; now he can see its nubby texture; now he can make out individual plants. He is drifting among their gnarled gray stems, their leaves of violet bora; he sees the curious misshapen growths that may be air bladders or some grotesque analogue of blossoms. Now, at the edge of the screen, something black and spindling leaps. He follows it instantly, finds it, brings it hugely magnified into the center of the screen: a thing like a hairy beetle, its body covered with thick black hairs or spines; it stands on six jointed legs, waving its antennae, its mouth parts busy. And its four bright eyes stare into his, across forty million miles." "Done!" "Right." "Free, hell." Jain grins. "Anybody who wants to catch the show can put a dollar in the slot." Evidently no one could. But likewise, Crawford could see no reason why it should have happened the way it did. the small and large screens for F&SF for many years. "There's one like it on mine." You may reapply for another examination at any time. An examination score in or above the eighth percentile will secure the removal of all restrictions, and you will immediately receive your Permanent License. A score in the sixth or seventh percentile will not affect the validity of your Temporary License, though its expiration date may be extended by this means for a period of up to three months. A score hi the fifth percentile or below will result in the withdrawal of your Temporary License. From Competition 14: I picked up Janice at her apartment in Westwood early Saturday morning. She was waiting for me and came striding out to the car all tegs and healthy golden flesh. She was wearing white shorts, sneakers, and that damned Dallas Cowboys jersey. It was authentic. The name and number on it were quite well-known? even to non-football fans. She wouldn't tell me how she got it, just smirked and looked smug. A haven to which the people can flee should. "The girl-Nina?*" The inner nest was free-form. The New Amsterdamites had allowed it to stay pretty much the way the whirlbirds had built it, only taking down an obstruction here and there to allow humans to move around. It was a maze of gauzy walls and plastic struts, with clear plastic pipes running all over and carrying fluids of pale blue, pink, gold, and wine. Metal spigots from the Podkayne had been inserted in some of the pipes. McKillian was kept busy refilling glasses for the visitors who wanted to sample the antifreeze solution that was fifty per cent ethanol. The typewriter had been put away, but the cards and score pad were. She shook her head, eyes hooded and expressionless, and then Nolan remembered that she didn't speak English. He raised the bottle and drank again, cursing himself for his mistake. "It is. I am. C'est la vie." She took a long, throat-rippling sip of the Schlitz and set her can down on. "Very well," said Amos. "When do we start?" "No, no, you must go," Hinda said again. "I cannot have you here at night If you love me, go." Then she added softly, her dark eyes on his, "But come again in the morning." "Mine's Ed," said the occupant of the bentwood rocker, a young man of Barry's own age, build, and hair style. "He left about half an hour before they found Maurice. I imagine he went over there, saw Maurice." "Oh, yes," said Amos. "I know the sound. I do not like to think what he would do with a woman worthy of a prince either." Yet Amos found himself thinking of it anyway.

"His lack of friendship for you certainly doesn't speak well of his friendship for his nearest and dearest." But he was alone in the castle hall. Jack and Lea had already left. The woman was rapacious, vulgar, Dame Fortune had become so well-disposed to him that he got his third endorsement (though in point of hard fact, his second) the very next night. The fated encounter took place at Morone's One-Stop Shopping, a mom-and-pop mini-grocery on Sixth Ave. right next to the International Supermarket. Although Morone's charged more for most items, Barry preferred shopping there because it offered such a limited and unchallenging range of choices (cold meats, canned goods, beer, Nabisco cookies) that he never felt intimidated and ashamed of his selections at the check-out counter. He hated to cook, but was that any reason he should be made to feel inadequate?
