Colman groaned. The target could only be the Kuan-yin. If the strike succeeded it would leave Stern in command of the only strategic weapons left on the planet, and in a position to dictate any terms he chose; if he failed, then Stern and his last few would take the whole of the Mayflower II with them when the Kuan-yin rose above Chiron's rim to retaliate. Outside the lock, the first carrier loaded with troops in zero-pressure combat suits moved away and disappeared into the tunnel that Brad and his party had appeared from, and powerful as she looks, rhino-powerful, or whether sometimes she feels as weak and frightened as. Bernard looked startled, but Kath seemed neither offended nor surprised. "I thought you might be," she said, nodding half to herself. "Nanook told me about that." She looked at Bernard. "We don't have a lot of time for secrets," she told him. "Farnhill says it's part of an exchange visit, but that's just a cover that he doesn't know we can see through because he's never asked us. They're reconnoitering this place in case they decide they want to take it over later. That's why your chief, Merrick, is with them--to assess whether your engineers could handle it. He's picked Waiters and Hoskins to put in here if the Directorate goes ahead with the idea." "It's been kind of. . . an unorthodox operation." of great age and immeasurable wisdom. His handsome profile was ideal for stone monuments in a heroic age, though by his actions he had proved. In that more common condition, Laura now had done nothing of the sort, and though he knew that she was not for an instant disposed to take. No meanness is evident in this tall, somewhat portly man, no suspicion or calculation in his twinkling blue. Jay drank some more of his coffee, stared at his cup in silence for what seemed a long time, then said without looking up, "I've been thinking on and off... you know, I think I'd like to get into the Army. What would be the best way of going about it?". Donella's stern expression softens slightly, though she still won't give the enchanting smile with which she. After that brief moment of frenzy, the viper slithered loose of its own tangles and flowed swiftly across. The shower wasn't as safe as the tub. Whenever she took off her leg brace, she was hesitant to risk. In her despondency, just as when she lay in a trance of sweet amusement, she could not be reached. Soldiers were already coming round the corner and bearing down on them fast, two sergeants in the lead, when the guards turned back again. The SD's reached instinctively for their sidearms, but their holsters were empty. For three vital seconds they were too confused to go for the alarm button on the wall-panel behind them. Three seconds were all Hanlon and Colman needed to cover the remaining distance. And then he realized that Kath was smiling in a way that said there was no need to explain or rationalize anything. Still looking him straight in the eye, she said in a quiet voice that was not for overhearing, "We like each other as people, and we admire each other for what we are. There isn't anything to feel hung up about on Chiron. People who feel like that usually make love, if that's what they want to do." She paused for a second. "Isn't that what you'd like to do?". "Two of your officers are heading this way. I thought you ought to know." matches her pace to meet his fastest sprint, leading him north into the barrens. "Sure. Who doesn't?". "I want to see this place. Is there any reason why you couldn't take me back there right now?". Colman grinned and stroked her hair. "You're right. So what do you want to hear about?". To Fallows, Merrick always seemed to have been designed along the lines of a medieval Gothic cathedral. His long, narrow frame gave the same feeling of austere perpendicularity as aloof columns of gaunt, gray stone, and his sloping shoulders, downturned facial lines, diagonal eyebrows, and receding hairline angling upward in the middle to accentuate his pointed head, formed a 'composition of arches soaring piously toward the heavens and away from the mundane world of mortal affairs. And like a petrified frontage staring down through expressionless windows as it screened the sanctum within, his face seemed to form part of a shell interposed to keep outsiders at a respectful distance from whoever dwelt inside. Sometimes Fallows wondered if there really was anybody inside or if perhaps over the years the shell had assumed an autonomous existence and continued to function while whoever had once been in there had withered and died without anyone's noticing. The girl stamped her left foot on the ground, causing the leg brace to rattle softly. She raised her left. Sinsemilla had been shopping earlier, in the afternoon. "Is that just a copy file, or are you displaying the master schedule?" Lechat inquired. five-dollar bill in his mouth. Hurry, he urges the men, as if by willpower alone he can move them. Hurry. With only a wistful expression, Rickster said that being able to turn yourself loose, whenever you wanted. "If so, then Steve's section will have to try rushing it from the nose and taking it over inside. But that's only as a last resort, as I said." He looked across at Colman, who returned a heavy nod. that tempered her and made her tough, that ensured her survival, that motivated. Drink often fueled her. Shirley turned to look at Ci. "Say, wouldn't he be great to have at our next party? I love things like that." She looked at Driscoll again. "When are you coming down to Chiron?" In the vision that the old doom doctor had, the one where he claimed he saw us being healed. Colman was nonplussed. He shook his head as if to clear ? it. "What--What exactly do you do around here?" Kath's smile became impish, as if she were amused by his confusion. "Oh, you'd be surprised." "True, once they're separated," Celia agreed. "But how many more killings would we have to see before that was achieved?" Honda and out of sight. would be crumpled wrappers from weird and unknown brands of candy discarded by traveling trolls or. Bernard nodded grimly, but his expression did not contain the dismay that it might have. Evidently he had been half-prepared for the news. "Borftein's been checking on that possibility," he said. "It'll be forty minutes before the Kuan-yin goes behind the rim. Stern won't launch before then." "A payoff from your husband, ten thousand bucks, offered by one of his flunkies." "Aren't the boarding gates being checked?" Colman murmured, surprised. rhythmic and crisp, faint at first, then suddenly rhythmic and solid, like the whoosh of a sword cutting air; jewel-sharp, jewel-dark colors, like a pirate's treasure of sapphires spilled among emeralds, scattered. Kath turned back from the night table, sat up to sip some of the wine, then passed him the glass and snuggled back inside his arm. "I suppose we must seem very strange to you, Steve, being descended from machines and computers." She chuckled softly. "I bet there are lots of people on your ship who think we're really aliens. Do they think we walk like Lurch and talk in metallic, monotone voices?" heard about the courtesy of the road. Instead, he steers his rig into an immense parking lot, apparently intending to stop either for dinner or a. "Regular comm channels are all down, to the ship everywhere. They have been for over an hour," Stanislaw said. "Emergency channels are restricted to priority military traffic." Colman threw the blankets aside, swung his legs out, and began pulling on his pants. "Strange things happening everywhere," Stanislaw told him, handing him his boots. "Lots of SDs arriving at the shuttle base, squads out inside Phoenix arresting people, most of Company B has taken off. . . I don't know what it's all about." along with her, speaking with the fake old-English dialect, using stage gestures and exaggerated. "They could dock shuttles at the ports in the Battle Module and come through the Spindle," someone pointed out. Bernard frowned at her in bemusement. Nothing was making any sense. "But-its antimatter drive ... that's your weapon, isn't it?" and to let her stubbornness rest in its scabbard. Now she said, "Just milk, Aunt Gen." table. "An officer who abets an act contrary to the best interests of the Service is being disloyal, and a citizen who acts against the interests of the. every time." Finally he smiled. "It's Michelina." for him. The sight of Cliff Walters moving toward the monitor room on the other side of the glass partition interrupted his thoughts. A moment later the door to one side opened with a low whine and Waiters walked in. Fallows swung his chair round to face him and looked up in surprise. "Hi. You're early. Still forty minutes to go." been Familiar with that strategy. that had kept her from drowning in self-pity since she'd moved in here. "If you say so," Stanislaw said. "Things won't do themselves. I'm stopping off at Jersey with Jay to see how his loco's coming along." "I don't give a shit," Padawski shouted as the trio spilled across the floor toward the counter. "I don't give a goddamn shit, I tell ya. If that asshole wants to--" His voice broke off suddenly. "Say, who've we got over here? It's Goldilocks from D Company--they're the shitheads who're so smart they can screw up a whole exercise on the first day." Colman felt the floor vibrate as heavy footfalls approached the booth. He quietly uncrossed his feet beneath the table and shifted his weight to be poised for instant movement. His fingers curled more snugly around the half-full cup of hot coffee. He looked up to find Padawski leering down from about three feet away. "She's been blue all day," said Wendy Quail. "Are you telling us we're prisoners?" the Chironian man asked. Nanook rubbed his chin and looked dubious. "That situation sounds very farfetched," he said after a few seconds. "I can't see how anyone else could walk in with the same experience. But if it did happen, and it was true... then I suppose Kath would have to agree with him. She'd be indebted by that amount. And -that would decide it for everyone else." To Tracy Devine, my editor, who never panics when, far past my deadline, I want to take yet more time. "Abaht ten minutes," the steward said. "I'm a painter," the painter said over his shoulder. "I like to see a paint job properly done. Why else would anyone do it?" He stepped back, surveyed his work with a critical eye, nodded to himself, and dropped the brush into a flap in his walking workshop, where a claw began spinning it in a solvent. "Anyhow, the people who live here fix plumbing, manage a bar in town, and one of them teaches the tuba. My plumbing sometimes needs fixing, I like a drink in town once in a while, and one day one of my kids might want to play the tuba. They fix faucets, I paint houses. What's so strange?" stirring the contents of a bubbling soup pot.. "You're not suggesting there'll be a fight, are you?" Paula said.. "The ship's changed a lot since then though," Colman remarked. "I noticed it the day we flew down to it from the Mayflower II soon after we arrived . . . when Shirley and Ci met Tony Driscoll. The front end must be at least twice as big as it used to be."
