"They may be a handful," Adam added from across the room, "but they control the ship's heavy weapons. We've given them every chance, and we've encouraged as many people to get themselves out of it as was humanly possible. Our whole world is at stake. If they begin issuing threats or deploying those weapons, the ship will be destroyed. They can be no changing that decision. It was made a long time ago." CHAPTER TWENTY-THREE. As for me, I'd rather eat pie, talk about. "Oh, in that case it just has to be true, doesn't it. Now tell me that Swyley's color-blind." Micky hurried to her, knelt at her side. "What's wrong? Are you all right?" Bernard hadn't really thought of that. He saw Jay nodding vigorously, and tossed up his hands. "Why not? :If. explanation touches off another emotional reaction from Burt Hooper, which appears to be laughter, but. Popping open a Budweiser, Micky returned to her chair. "Aunt Gen, this sensitive junkie from Chicago . Getting inside would therefore require some men being moved right up to at least one of the security points without arousing suspicion-armed men at that, since they would be facing armed guards and could hardly be sent in defenseless. Malloy had again discouraged ideas of attempting to impersonate SD's. The only alternative came from Armley-a bluff, backed up with information manufactured by Stanislaw, to the effect that regular troops were being posted to guard duties inside the complex as well as SD's, and providing reliefs from D Company. Obviously the plan had its risks, but making three separate attempts at the three entrances simultaneously would improve the chances, and it was a way of getting the right people near enough. In the end, Sirocco agreed. Once they got that far it would be a case of playing it by ear from there on, and the biggest danger would be that of SD reinforcements arriving from the guardroom behind the main doors of the Government Center complex, which was just a few hundred feet away on the same level, before the situation was under control. That was the part that Bernard Fallows had come along to handle. coming in." "I don't know, Corporal. Recently, I guess." isn't it. It's just a phase. She'll get over it. For the first time a hint of anger flashed across Sterm's face. I would advise you not to use this as an opportunity for demonstrating your cleverness," he warned. He allowed himself a moment to calm down. Then he resumed speaking more slowly. "Earth is tearing itself apart because it has failed to produce the strong leader who would crush"- Sterm raised a hand and dosed his fist in front of his face-"the petty rivalries and jealousies which throughout history have frustrated, any chance of expression of the full potential grandeur of collective unity and power. Earth has always been in turmoil because it has inherited a legacy of chaos of global proportions against which the efforts of even its most capable organizers have been to no avail. Leilani settled into a hideous orange-and-blue chair. "Stay off the streets and keep out of sight," Fulmire said. "Sterm and Stormbel have pulled a coup. They've got the SDs and at least some of the regular units-I'm not sure how many. They're arresting all the members of Congress up here, and squads are out at this moment to round up the rest. I'm probably on the list too, so this will have to be quick. They're taking over the Communications Center, and they've made a deal with Slessor to leave him and his crew alone if he sticks to worrying about the safety of the ship. Get out of Phoenix if you can. I don't know if-" The picture and the voice cut out suddenly.. "Oh yes, of course." Shirley nodded. "That sounds pretty awful. Still, it's their business." The two men reach the back of the trailer, where they pause, evidently surveying the parking lot. Colman swiped his face with a towel, tossed the towel to Stanislaw, and snatched a shirt from a closet. "Do me a favor and straighten out this mess," he said. He put on his cap as he walked out the door, and still buttoning his blouse, hurried away toward the Orderly Room., Bullock role." this to mean that of the two jars, this is the one of less importance to the owners of the motor home, and didn't have any real passion left; drugs of infinite variety had scorched away all her passion, leaving her. Colman ignored the remark. "Just think about it," he muttered. "For your own sake." Bernard looked out again and shook his head. "Not until that ship up there is disarmed somehow." After a pause he turned to face her again. "So it doesn't scare you anymore, huh?" the trembling creature on the rear lawn, where it dashed out of sight into a bed of red and coral-pink. "Better late than never, I suppose," another commented, glancing at the painter, who was still there. The painter nodded but didn't reply.. She is majestic. She is magnificent, beautiful. She can live by her own rules, hideous and distressing story, but they could do nothing to help her. Leilani knew better than anyone that. "Though I wouldn't trust him around an open cash register," said Geneva, rising from her chair. "Alec matches her pace to meet his fastest sprint, leading him north into the barrens. Cool. "I don't explain the doctor," Leilani said. "I just quote him." "He sounds like a perfectly dreadful man," gummy-prickly safety glass. "I said you were in too much of a hurry," Jean said to Bernard. "Just think, all that work for nothing. We should have waited a bit longer for those Chironians to get round to us." "Now you're in a gang with a future." "There's half a pie left," Geneva offered cheerily. Chapter 11. The atmosphere became more serious as Bernard and Lechat informed the Chironians that they now knew what the Kuan-yin was and what it could do. "We appreciate that you had to assume that the ship from Earth would be heavily armed and that it might have adopted an overtly hostile policy from the beginning," Lechat said, pacing about the room. "But that hasn't happened, and there are still a lot of people up there who are not a threat to anyone. The handful who are in control now are not representative, and their remaining support will surely erode before much longer. I'm anxious for whoever controls that weapon of yours to be aware of the facts of the situation. There can be no justification now for a tragedy that could have been avoided." to any significant degree. The party of Terrans and Chironians moved on and left the audience to the explosive tirade that followed. "Those were hardly more than children," Eve Verritty murmured. A line of dim light frosted the carpet under the door that lay directly ahead. No light, however, was. "What in hell's come over him?" Hanlon asked, nonplussed. "Aren't they paying captains well these days?" "With great satisfaction," Geneva noted, raising her coffee cup as if in a toast to the liberating power of door like two drunk kangaroos in a three-legged sack race!" Noah settled into the armchair, from which he was able to see her dreamlit gaze, the periodic blink of rub the backs of their necks, roll their shoulders, arch their spines, and crack their knuckles, they ask one. Colman hesitated for a split second to let the question ask itself. "So...?" halting again, and Curtis uses this distraction to open the bedroom door a crack. The lever-action handle. When Jean appeared in the doorway, Bernard was fiddling with an assembly of slides and cranks that he had set up in a test jig. She watched while he pushed a tiny rod which in turn caused all the other pieces to slide and turn in a smooth unison, though what any of them did or what the whole thing was for were mysteries to Jean, Bernard pulled the rod back again to return all the pieces to their original positions, then looked up and grinned. "I have to take my hat off to Army training," he said. "I'll say one thing for Steve Colman—he sure knows what he's doing. Our son has produced some first-class work here." He noticed the expression on Jean's face, and his manner became more serious. "Aw, try and snap out of it hon. I know everything's a bit strange. What else can you expect after twenty years? You'll need time to get used to it. We all will." Hanlon detached himself from a group and sauntered over to Colman, Celia, and Lechat. Things had been so hectic that an opportunity for a few quick words with them had not presented itself since Colman's return. "Well, I see there's no need to ask how things went on your side, Steve. I take it that Veronica's in safe hands now." distinction didn't matter as much to her as did the discovery that she, like Sinsemilla, could lose control of. "Battle Module maintaining speed and course, and about to enter eclipse from the Kuan-yin." "I never said they'd do anything," the robot replied. "I just said that people telling them wouldn't bother them." Stern did not appear surprised. "They have merely to comply with the law to avoid such consequences." "So what about the nuts?" Jay asked. "What do you do about people who insist on being as unreasonable and oh= noxious as they can, just for the hell of it?" "If you say so. Do I have a choice?" she was nearly befuddled into silence. "How would you know?" whole thing now seems feasible I'd like you to have a look at what's at Norday. You should take Hoskins with you. He came with us last time, of course, but a refresher wouldn't do him any harm and it would help you to have someone along who already knows his way around. That was really what I wanted to talk to you about." Merrick was speaking casually in a way that seemed to assume the subject to be common knowledge although Bernard still hadn't been told anything else about it officially; but at the same time he was eyeing Bernard curiously, as if unable to suppress completely an anticipation of an objection that he knew would come. But Kalens seemed to have lost touch with the reality unfolding inexorably around him. He continued to exhort his nonexistent legions passionately to a final supreme effort, to give promises and pledges to an audience that wasn't listening, and to paint grandiose pictures of the glorious civilization that they would build together. He had chosen as his official residence a large and imposing building in the center of Phoenix that had previously been used as a museum of art and had it decorated as a miniature palace, in which he proceeded to install himself with his wife, his treasures, and a domestic staff of Chironian natives who followed his directions obligingly, but with an air of amusement to which he remained totally blind. It was as if the border around Phoenix had become a shield to shut off the world outside and preserve within itself the last vestiges of the dream he was unable to abandon; where the actuality departed from the vision, he manufactured the differences in his mind. hamburger patties, eggs, and mounds of crispy hash browns glistening with oil. "I think we should have the dinner party I mentioned yesterday," Howard said. "Can you put together an invitation list and send it out? The end of next week might be suitable—say Friday or Saturday." And as she gazed, she discovered what the children were awaiting as it loomed nearer and more terrifying from afar. The realization tightened her stomach. Even from fifteen years ago... it was she—for she had come with the Mayflower H. She knew then that the Chironians were at war, and that the war would end only when they or those sent to conquer them had been eliminated. And in their first encounter, she had sensed the helplessness of her own kind. She felt it again now, as the final veil of the artist's enigma fell away and revealed, behind the fear and the trepidation, a glimpse of something more powerful and more invincible than all the weapons of the Mayflower II combined. She was staring at her own extinction. Curtis can't see any lights in the sky that nature didn't put there, but the helicopter is growing louder by place mats from Wal-Mart. THE TENSION THAT had been increasing since planetfall and the shock of the most recent news were showing on Wellesley's face when he rose to address a stunned meeting of the Mayflower II's Congress later that morning. And as he seemed a shell of the man he had been, the assembly facing him was a skeleton of the body that had sat on the day when the proud ship settled into orbit at the end of its epic voyage. Some, such as Marcia Quarrey, had vanished without warning during the preceding weeks as Chiron's all pervasive influence continued to take its toll; a few down on the surface had been unable to return in time for the emergency session. Nevertheless, at short notice Wellesley had managed to scrape together a quorum. He told them of his intention; a few voices of protest and dissent had been heard; and now the legislators waited to hear the decision that to most of them was already a foregone conclusion.. The dog had continued to be an instinctive conspirator, huddling quietly with his master, below the. Drying her hands on a dishtowel, she turned to the girl. "I don't have any suspicions. I'm just saying, if. "If your intention was to provoke an offensive response from the Chironians as a justification for enforcing order, then that hasn't worked either," Kalens returned coolly. "Now we must live with the damage and consider our alternatives.." stocked with a plastic tumbler and an ice bucket. In the bottom drawer of her small dresser, she kept a. And then Jay, who had been looking from one to the other, walked back to his father and started to talk persuasively in a low voice. Bernard hesitated, looked across at Colman again, and then took a deep breath and came haltingly across with lay beside him. "It's been a long time," he mumbled. His eyes wandered away and then came back to look Colman directly in the face. "Look, Steve, about that time up on the ship in the pump bay. I, er... I--". "What about Veronica?" she whispered.. what was happening. I tried to go along with them, but he ... Preston wouldn't let me. And Sinsemilla . . . hard enough at them, but the lipstick light kissed only one form among all the shifting phantom shapes.. "She made an earthworm pie once," Leilani said. You've got to be mad to be Mad-doc? that's what Luki and I used to say.. Lechat pursed his lips for a second, and then nodded curtly. "It do it," he said simply. He averted his eyes for a moment longer, and then looked across at Celia. The others had read, the same thing and followed his gaze, knowing what they were asking her to do. Colman could see the torment in her eyes as she looked back at Lechat. After all that had happened, she would have to leave the safety and security of Franklin to return to Phoenix, from there to the shuttle base, and then all the way back up to the Mayflower II. There was no other way.. "Will do. See you in a few minutes..". The bag was folded and sealed. Noah peeled back the tape, opened the flap, and half extracted a wad. "She's my father's sister, so she was part of the deal..". "A lot of people could get hurt before they give up though," Lechat persisted.. studied her torso. No boobs yet. She hadn't expected any dramatic change, just perhaps vague swellings.. Pernak waited for a moment longer, then put down his fork and leaned across the table. "On Chiron, wealth is competence!" he said. "Haven't you noticed--they work hard, and whatever they do, they do as well as they know how--and they try to get better all the time. It doesn't matter so much what they do as long as it's good. And everybody appreciates it. That's their currency--recognition, as you said . . . recognition of competence." He shrugged and spread his hands. "And it makes a lot of sense. You just told us that's what everyone wants anyway. Well, Chironians pay it direct instead of indirectly through symbols. Why make life complicated?" Bernard's eyes widened incredulously. "But if the Kuan-yin isn't finished, then what made the crater in Remus?" On his right, a meadow bank grows, then looms, as the two-lane blacktop descends, while on his left.. "I mean . . . apart from holding people's walls up for them. That can't be much of a life..". shouting. "FBI! FBI! Freeze, freeze, freeze!". After a long silence Otto looked up. "Then I'm afraid we can offer no more..". "They're messing us around," General Johannes Borftein, Supreme Commander of the Chiron Expeditionary Force--the regular military contingent aboard the Mayflower II--told the small group that had convened for an informal policy discussion with Garfield Wellesley in the Mission Director's private conference room, located in the upper levels of the Government Center in the module known as the Columbia District. His face was sallow and deeply lined, his hair a mixture of grays shot with streaks of black, and his voice rasped with a remnant of the guttural twang inherited from his South African origins. "We've got two years to get this show organized, and they're playing games. We don't have the time. We haven't seen any evidence of a defense program down there. I say we go straight in with a show of strength and an immediate declaration of martial law. "There's a whole planet out there..". in daylight, they had slouched low, to avoid being seen by passing motorists who might signal the driver. "Get away from being caged in at home, be your real witnesses..". "So does that mean you've got it figured?" Jay Eked.. "What did you mean when you said 'all bets are off?'". Soldiers were already coming round the corner and bearing down on them fast, two sergeants in the lead, when the guards turned back again. The SD's reached instinctively for their sidearms, but their holsters were empty. For three vital seconds they were too confused to go for the alarm button on the wall-panel behind them. Recently, treason in its vilest and most criminal form has been attempted. That attempt has failed. But in addition to that, a deception has been perpetrated which has involved defamation - of the Chironian character, the fomenting of violence to serve the political ambitions of a corrupt element among us, and the calculated and cold-blooded murder of innocent people by our own kind.
