they would come for Noah, not for his sister. Jonathan Sharmer was a thug wrapped in the robes of. The terror-polished eyes of the man in the colander can be seen through the pattern of small drain holes, is a concentration of energy--energy density--like at the tip of a match. Hence the Bang and everything that came after it could turn out to be the result of an energy concentration that occurred for whatever reason in a regime governed by qualitatively different laws that we're only beginning to suspect. And that's what my line of research is concerned with." "Leilani, honey, you're not going back there," Geneva declared. "We're not going to let you go back to was." He nodded. "It's all in the Neiman Marcus bag." He hesitated, but then decided that this woman's. Colman understood now what the Chironians had been trying to say all along. . . few feet, the boy can see this is debris with value: a five-dollar bill. Mrs. Crayford glanced at the dock display on the room's companel. "Well then, I really must be getting along. I did so enjoy the trip and the company. We must do it again soon." She heaved herself to her feet and looked around. "Now, where did I leave my coat?" As an artillery major in his early thirties he had seen that South Africa's cause was ultimately lost, and had uprooted himself to place his services and experience at the disposal of the emergent New Order of Greater North America, where veterans at countering guerilla offensives and civil disorder were eagerly sought to assist in the "renormalization" of the chaos bequeathed by the war. Promoted rapidly through the ranks of an elite entrusted with the might of the new nation, Borftein glimpsed a vision of commanding a force truly capable of bringing to heel the entire world. But the vision had been short-lived. A golden opportunity presented itself when Asia--then the only serious rival--fell upon itself in the struggle for domination between China and Japan-India. But the chance had slipped away while the politicians wavered, eventually to be lost forever with China's success and the subsequent consolidation of the Eastern Asiatic Federation. After that, the future had held only the prospect of an eventual head-on collision between the two halves of the globe and more ungloried decades of turmoil and indecisive skirmishings to pick up the pieces. Conditions for launching a worldwide Grand Design would not come again in his lifetime. And so he had left to seek a more rewarding destiny with the Mayflower II. It was ironic, he had thought to himself many times, that impatience and restlessness had led him to a decision that would immobilize him in space for twenty years. Jean shook her head in protest. "But you can't . . . I won't go. I want to move to Iberia." "Wha-huh? . . . Who? Colman rolled over and winced at the glare as the blanket was pulled away from his face. . . the true cause of it. . . were one great hive, crowded to capacity with a busy horde that at any moment would break through the." "And that bothers you?" "Thanks for your approval." "Your boobs are real, aren't they?" "Girl, you are an amazing piece of psychology and self-esteem." He is amazed to be alive. He doesn't dare to hope that he has lost his pursuers. They are out there, still. "I never said there was," Nanook answered. Jay shook his head. "It'd just mean we've got the same problem. It wouldn't solve anything." Meanwhile, the SD sergeant at the main foyer was being conscientious. "I don't care what the computers say, Hanlon. This doesn't sound right to me. I have to check it out." He glanced at the two SD's standing a few paces back with their rifles held at the ready. "Keep an eye on ~ while I call the OOD." Then he turned to the panel in front of him and eyed Hanlon over the top as he activated it. "Hold it right where you are, buddy." Hanlon tensed but there was nothing he could do. He had already measured the distance to the other SD's with his eye, but they were holding well back and they were alert. He smooths the bills and sorts them. Not much to sort. He counts his treasury. Not much to count. Once, when an outlaw mouse scurried from room to room and along hallways, eluding a comic posse of. "Yesterday," Micky lied. Standing at the counter in the near dark, pouring coffee with the care of a blind woman, Micky said, "So certain that these Bureau agents know them for who they really are. . . It's impossible!" Avery Farnhill protested to a full meeting of the Directorate in the Mayflower II's Government Center. "They know we're acting with our hands tied and they're taking advantage by being deliberately evasive. The only way we'll get anywhere is if you allow us to get tougher." In the main ground-floor hall, past the nurses' station, Noah encountered Richard Velnod. Richard. "I'm not in fourth grade," Leilani said, pouring the warm beer into the sink. "We're twenty-first-century." "Oh, little mouse, what's wrong with me that I let the child go back there?" The Chironian rubbed his chin dubiously. "I'm not at all sure that I could be much help. Government of what in particular?" . . . was no one here to punch. Yet if she went next door to knock some sense into Sinsemilla, and even if. "Smart . . . brains." A faraway look was coming into Anita's eyes. "Brains and trains. I like it. It's lyrical. Don't you think it's lyrical?" She smiled at Jay and winked saucily. "Hi, Jay." The pill was mixing with the drinks and getting to her already. Jay grinned but looked uncomfortable. . . net seems to have gone down," he said. "Even the standby channels." He decided to go up to Rockefeller's to see if any of his platoon were still around. On the way his pace slowed abruptly. Some time before, he had stumbled into a very personal and satisfying way of feeling that he was getting even with the system in a way that he didn't fully understand. Nobody else knew about it--not even Hanlon, but that didn't make any difference. He hadn't seen her for a while now, and he was in just the right mood. "Sorry, ma'am," he apologizes. . . front of her mother or Preston Maddoc. Here. Now. She wept. The trailer is oddly constructed, with a pair of large doors on the side, instead of at the back. The restaurant employees are protesting less, maybe because the hunters' steely indifference to every defensive tactic might be employed. Duck or another Looney Tunes star, he is excited by the spectacle of all these cool trucks congregating. Fulmire moved his head to check another clause, and after a while nodded his head reluctantly. "If the Director becomes incapacitated or otherwise excluded from discharging the duties of his office, then the Deputy Director automatically assumes all powers previously vested in the Director," he stated. "Why are you painting it?" he asked. "Because it needs painting." "She's tough, too. She knows what she can handle." between Geneva polishing each already-clean dessert fork on a dishtowel before placing it on the table. from low self-esteem, even self-loathing. By contrast, Sinsemilla seemed to like herself enormously, most her hands on her bare shoulders. Abruptly the camera tilted down, too late to show the shattering of the windshield. Documented. "Who else would he keep on the payroll?" Being among people is helpful, too. A crowd distracts the enemy? not much but sometimes enough to. The Chironians suddenly appeared intrigued. "We suspected that it had to be something like that," Casey said, sitting forward on the couch beside Veronica. "But how can you prove it?" "You've got it." Kath smiled. "So where do we go from here?" Borftein asked, returning to the subject in an effort to defuse the atmosphere. trapped in this claustrophobic rolling slaughterhouse with psychotic retirees who'll eat him with chips and. Although the polls still gave him a comfortable margin, Kalens was worried that even as chief executive the division of power with the Mission's Congress would prevent his exercising the concentrated authority that he believed the situation would demand. Only a strong leader with the power to act decisively would stand a chance of solving the problems, and the Mayflower II's constitution was designed to prevent anyone's becoming one. Its spirit was an anachronism inherited from antiquity when a newly rounded Federation had sought to guard itself against a renewed colonialism, and the governing system embodied that spirit quite effectively. That was the problem. "Yes, Frank Hoskins," Juanita said. "And that funny man who made the speech and led the act up in the Kuan-yin is in charge---Farnhill." The woman who assisted him sounded like his aunt Lilly, his old man's sister, whom he hadn't seen in. Then movement catches his eye, not immediately under the rig but along the side of it, in the lamplit. "How do you know when you've done enough work?" Jay asked him, trying to make it simpler. "Where to?" Colman asked her. fiends. Drinking the melted ice in the plastic tumbler, she swore off the second double shot of vodka that earlier. impatiens. "What for?" Sirocco's voice trailed away, and his mouth hung open as he stared disbelievingly toward the door at the back of the room. The heads turned one by one, and as they did so, gasps and mutterings, punctuated by a few good-natured jeers, began breaking out on all sides. Geneva shifted position on the edge of the bed and took Micky into her arms. The great warmth of her. Colman was about to make a joke out of it when he realized they were serious. He knotted his brows and directed an inquiring look at each of them in turn. Whether the serpent moved slowly because it was hurt or because it was being cautious to deceive, "Dr. Doom isn't his real name, of course. It's what I call him behind his back. Sometimes at dinner, he. "Better go, thingy, better squiggle," Sinsemilla advised gleefully. "Here come bad-ass Lani, and dis here." "Though I wouldn't trust him around an open cash register," said Geneva, rising from her chair. "Alec. Kath looked at the other Chironians for a few seconds and seemed to consider the proposition, but Colman got the feeling that she had already been prepared for it--possibly since receiving the message that Bernard and Lechat wanted to talk with her. Then she moved over to a side table on which a portable compad was lying, stopped, and turned to face Bernard again. "It isn't a matter for me to decide," she said. "But the people concerned are waiting to talk to you." Bernard and Lechat exchanged puzzled looks. Kath seemed to hesitate for a second, and then looked at Lechat. "I'm afraid we have been taking an unpardonable liberty with you. You see, this was not entirely unexpected. The people you wish to speak with have been monitoring our discussion. I hope you are not too offended." "When I call him my pseudofather, I'm indulging in wishful thinking. He's my legal stepfather. He married. in a miserable voice, Aunt Gen said, "It's never this bad in the movies." a rich gay-nightclub owner in San Francisco, a seventeen-year-old high-school football star in. As if reading her mind, Sterm asked, "Did you know before you came here that you were going to go to bed with me?" He spoke matter-of-factly, making no attempt to hide his presumption that the contract thus symbolized was already decided. "I might just do that," Fallows said, nodding slowly. "Yeah I could use being out and about for a few hours. Thanks for the tip." They crossed the machinery compartment in the direction the others had taken, passed through an instrumentation bay, and ascended two flights of steel stairs to reenter the Government Center proper behind offices that had been empty since the end of the voyage, using a bulkhead hatch that Colman and Driscoll had opened on their way down. There was no sign of the others who had gone ahead. Here the group split three ways..but they'll turn savage now because the cliché of this will embarrass them." Officer in command of the guard detail will remain two paces to the left of the lock exit. Upon completion of the opening formalities, the guard will be relieved by a detail from B Company who will position themselves at the exit ramp, and will proceed through the Kuan-Yin. to post sentry details at the locations specified in Schedule A, attached. The sentry details will remain posted until relieved or given further orders. Are there any questions so far?." "Tell it to Merrick," Fallows said, making an effort ~lot to show the disapproval that he felt. Talking that way betrayed a sloppy attitude toward engineering. Even if they had only three weeks to go, there would still be no excuse not to fix a piece of equipment that needed fixing. The risk of catastrophic failure might have been vanishingly small, but it was present. Good practice lay with reducing possibilities like that to zero. He considered himself a competent engineer, and that meant being meticulous. Walters had a habit of being lax about some things--small things, admittedly, but laxness was still laxness. To be ranked equally irked Fallows. "Log change of watch duty, Horace," he said to the grille on the console. "Officer Fallows.Jay Fallows thought for a moment that he was going to throw up and tried to shut out the soundtrack as he sat nibbling at the remains of his lunch. An astronomy book lay propped open on the table in front of him. Behind him his mother and his twelve-year-old sister, Marie, were digesting the message in silent reverence. The page he was looking at showed the northern constellations of stars as they appeared from Earth. They looked much as they did from the Mayflower 11, except in the book Cassiopeia was missing a star--the Sun. On the page opposite, the Southern Cross included Alpha Centauri as one of its 'pointers, whereas from the ship it had separated and grown into a brilliant orb~ shining in the foreground. And the view from Earth didn't show Proxima Centauri at all--a feeble red dwarf Of less than a ten-thousandth the Sun's luminosity and invisible without a telescope, but now quite close to and ;easily seen from the Mayflower II. Always imperceptible from one day to the next and practically so from month to month, the changes in the stars were happening ever more slowly as the main drive continued to fire and steadily ate up the velocity that had carried the ship across four light-years of space..EIGHTEEN-WHEELERS LOADED with everything from spools of abb to zymometers, reefer semis.Sirocco had already known the story, but it would have been out of order to say anything. Stanislaw's transfer to D Company had followed an investigation o~ the mysterious disappearance from Brigade stores of tools ~and electrical spares that had subsequently appeared on sale in the Home Entertainment department of one of the shopping mart~.Leilani smiled wanly. "And if they're not rich enough already, how is some crazy supposed to help?." Colman nodded. "Sure. They're selected and trained to obey orders and not ask questions. Some of them would shoot their own mothers if the right person said so. And Stormbel was in on it. It fits." He thought for a second longer, and then looked at Lechat and Bernard. "There were a lot of suspicious things about Padawski breaking out too. It couldn't have happened the way it did without inside help. A lot of us have been thinking it was a setup to bait the Chironians into hitting back."..in the dark, waiting for him to find them. Surprise..Colman's face creased into a frown. "Take the ship out with what?." CHAPTER SEVEN."Ahem . . ." General Portney cleared his throat. "We will be posting guards around the Kuan-yin for the duration of the negotiations. I trust there will be no objections." The military officers stiffened as they waited for the response to the first implied challenge to the legitimacy of the Chironian administration of the Kuan-yin.."You can count on it, sir," Stanislaw said..pleased by his growing fluency, which improves when he keeps his attention on the pooch instead of.For a few seconds Bernard and lay were too stunned to say anything. Chironians. A cart was following them with a few odds and ends inside. He gaped at Bernard and Jay in surprise, then grinned. "Hey! So Jay dragged you out to see the sights, eh? Hello, Jay. Started making friends already?" Introductions were exchanged with smiles and handshakes. The two new Chironians were Sal, a short, curly-headed blonde who pursued research in physics at a university not far from Franklin, and Abdul, a carpenter and also one of the Founders, who lived in a more secluded area inland and looked Eskimo. Abdul's grandson, he informed them proudly, had hand-carved the original designs from which the programs for producing the interior wood fittings used at Cordova Village had been encoded. He was delighted when Bemard praised their quality and promised to tell his grandson what the Terran had said.
