Otto seemed to be the spokesman. He seemed anxious to reassure them. "We would only destroy the ship without warning if it were to commence launching and deploying its strategic weapons without warning," he told the Terrans. "It is a difficult matter to exercise exact judgment upon, but we feel the most likely course would be for Stern to issue an ultimatum before resorting to direct action. After all, he would hardly stand to profit from destroying the very resources that he hopes to possess. Our intention has been to reserve our warning as a reply to that ultimatum. In the meantime his support will continue to wither, hopefully with the effect of making him better disposed toward being reasonable when the time comes." "Never you mind, Curtis," Donella says. "Time I wasn't here," he muttered. "I'll be up in Rockefeller's if anyone wants to join me there." Sirocco peered at the screen, checked the entries in the revised schedule that Stanislau had produced, and nodded. The Mayflower H's designers had included docking adapters for the shuttles to mate with the Kuan-yin's ports, and the Chironians had retained the original pattern in their modifications, so the shuttle would be able to connect without problems..English accent.. He shook his head slowly. "You know, this sounds crazy but sometimes I wish they would make us pay for it." "What does that mean?" Driscoll asked, looking at the Chironian who had spoken.. "It wasn't like that at all," she said. "Although, I suppose. I shouldn't really say too much since I've had nothing to compare it with. But it was"-she shrugged- "warm, friendly.., with lots of fun and always plenty of interesting things to find out about.
